

Australian Government

Department of Education and Training

National Strategy for International Education 2025

Karen Sandercock

Group Manager, International Group

Australian Government

Department of Education and Training

National Strategy for International Education 2025

Built on three pillars:

1. Strengthening the fundamentals
2. Making transformative partnerships
3. Competing globally

Council for International Education advisory role with members from diverse sectors

Implementation Progress

- Priorities of Expert Members of Council – 2018 Implementation Plan
- Government agencies building policy and regulatory settings:
 - Market development
 - Product improvement
 - Enabling environment
- Enabling Growth and Innovation Funding Program

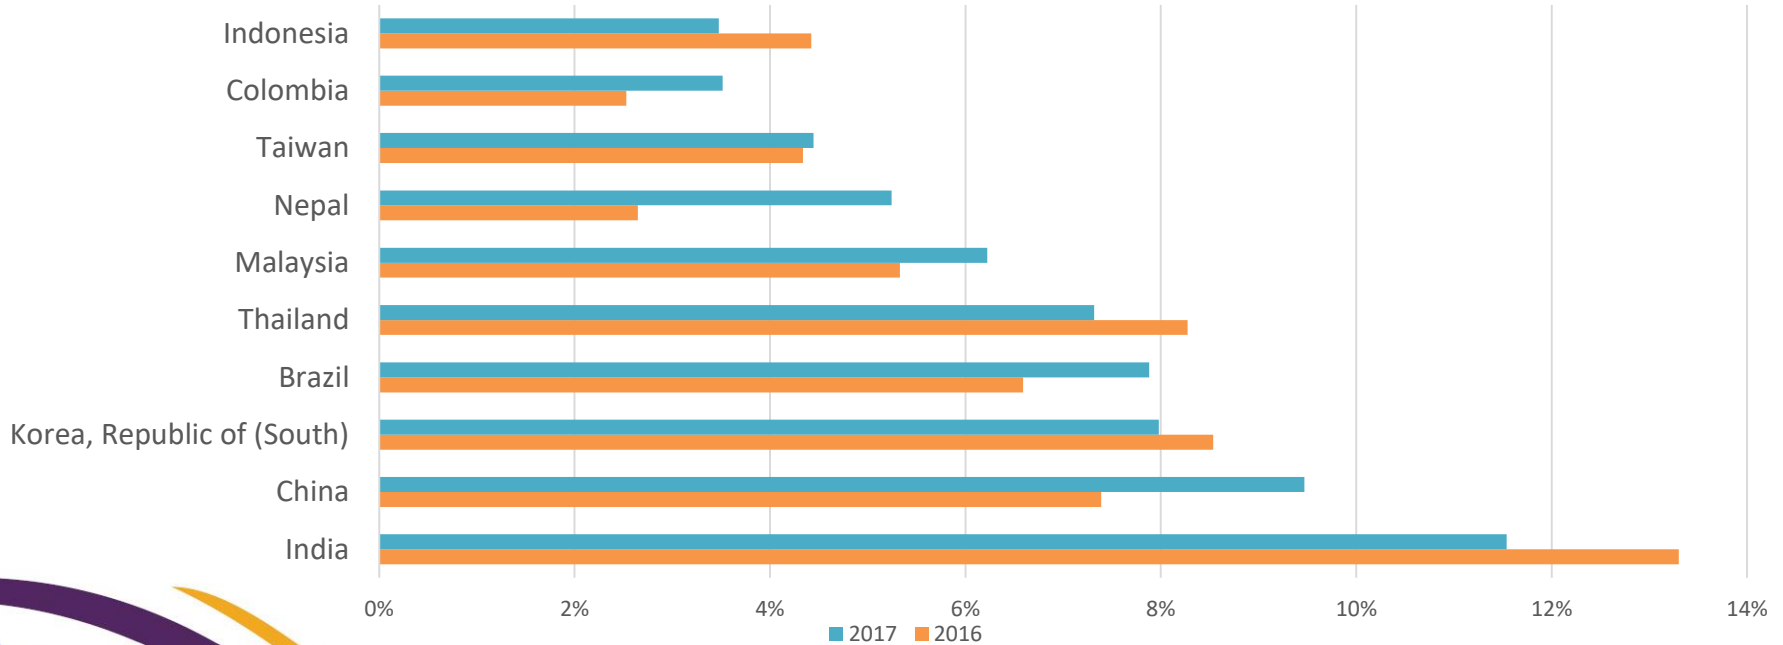

Implementation Progress - VET

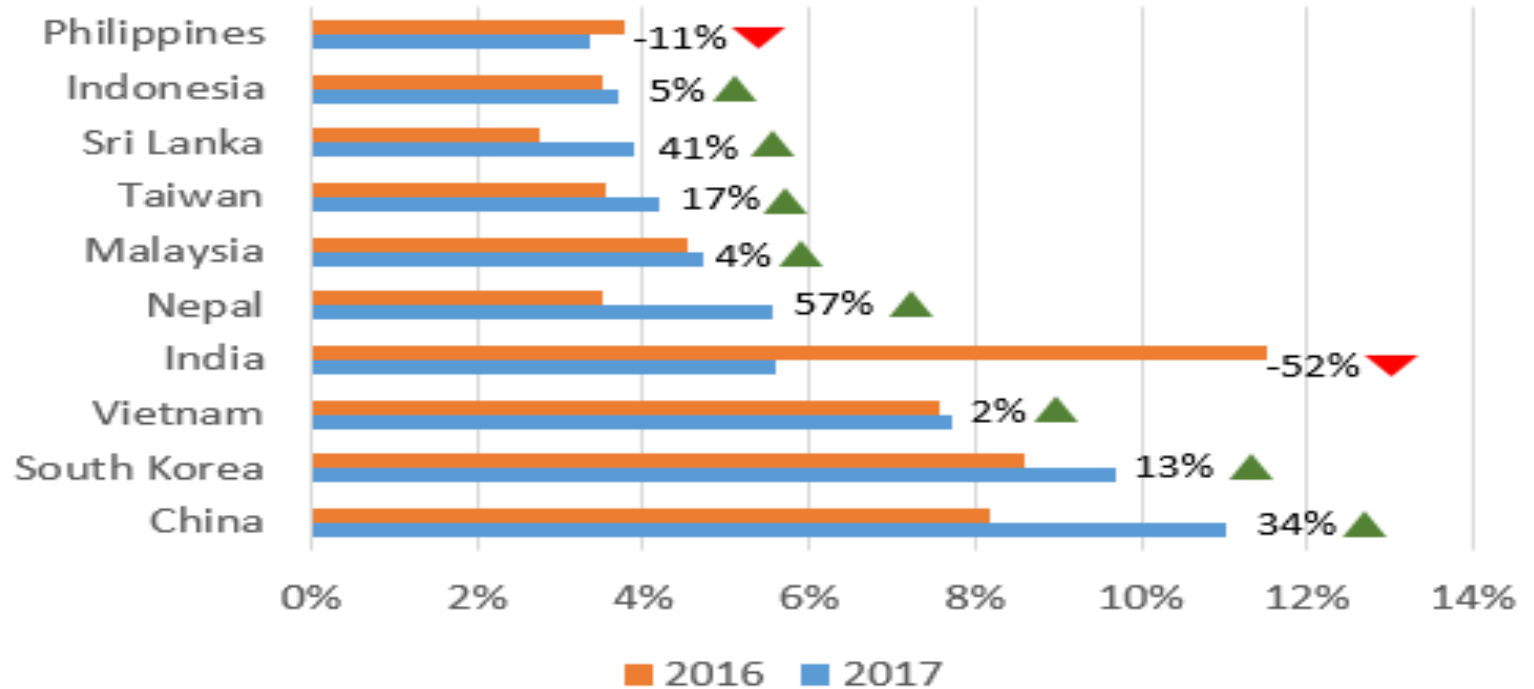

- Positioning our VET systems as the international standard
- Capacity building
- Innovative delivery models
- Government to Government engagement

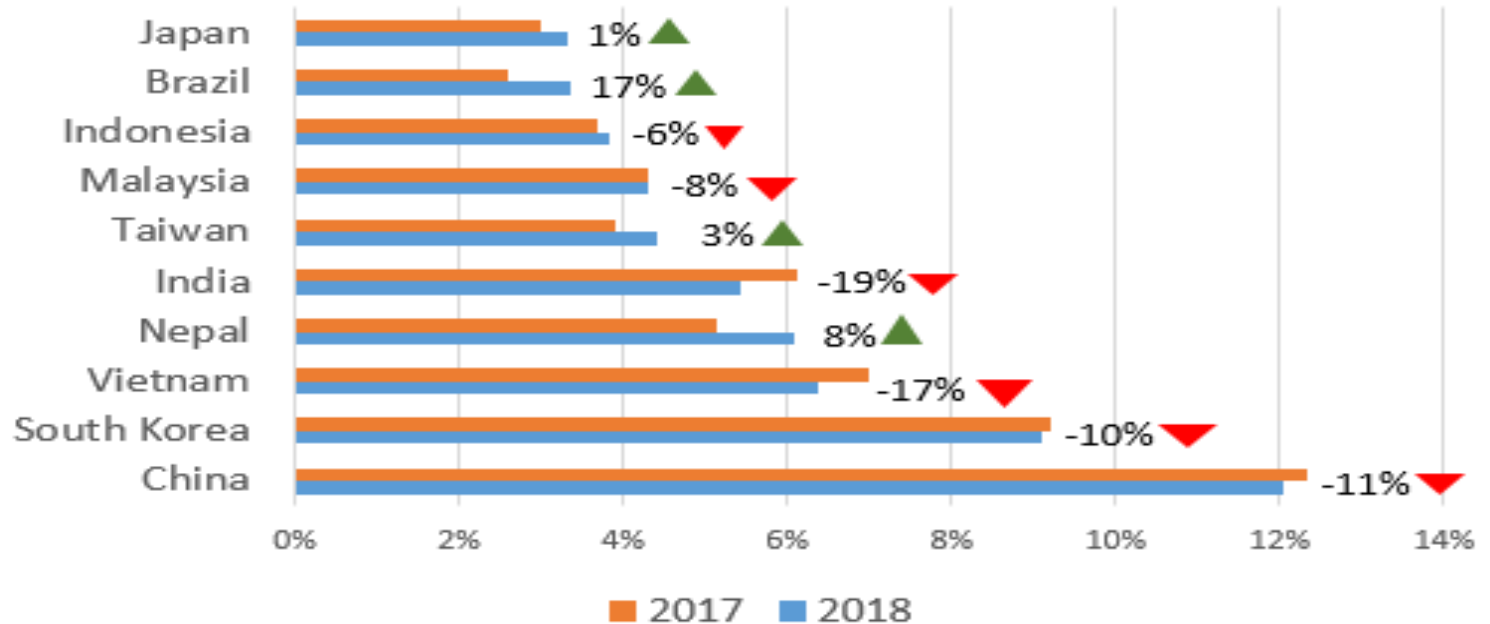

Diversification of VET sector commencements

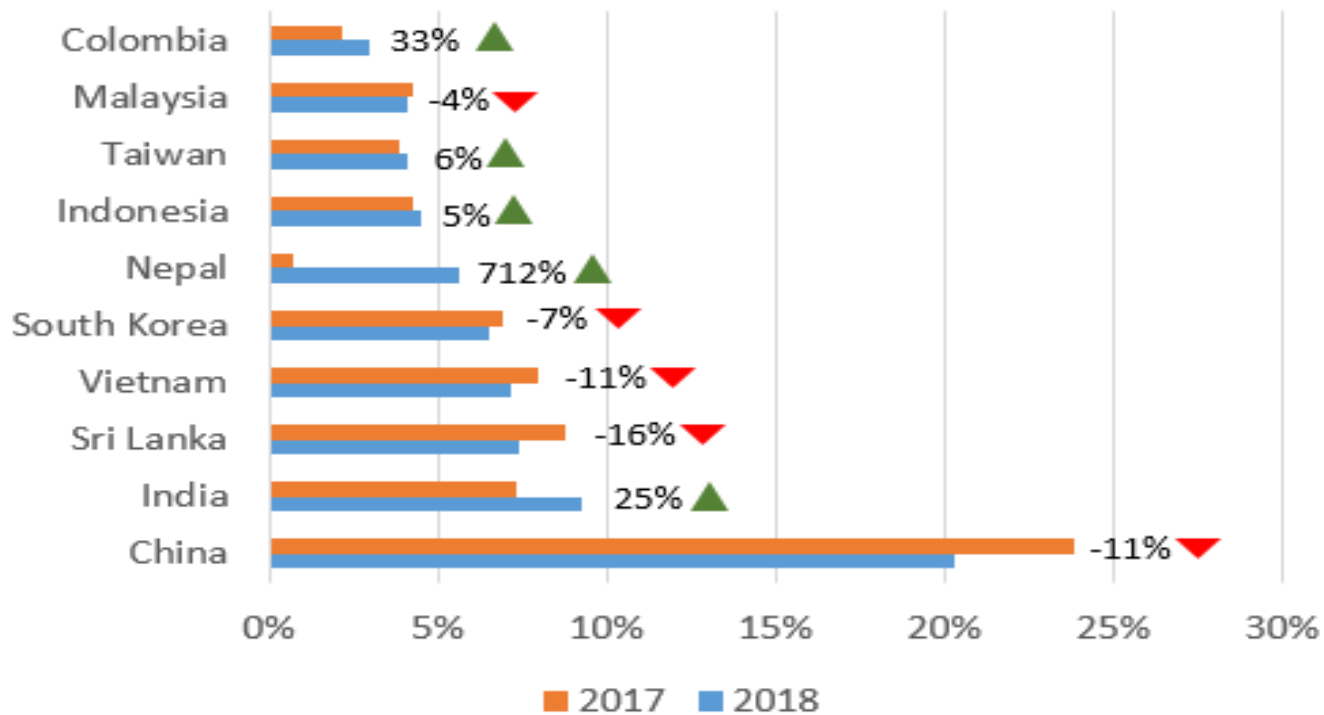

Diversification of VET sector (public) commencements

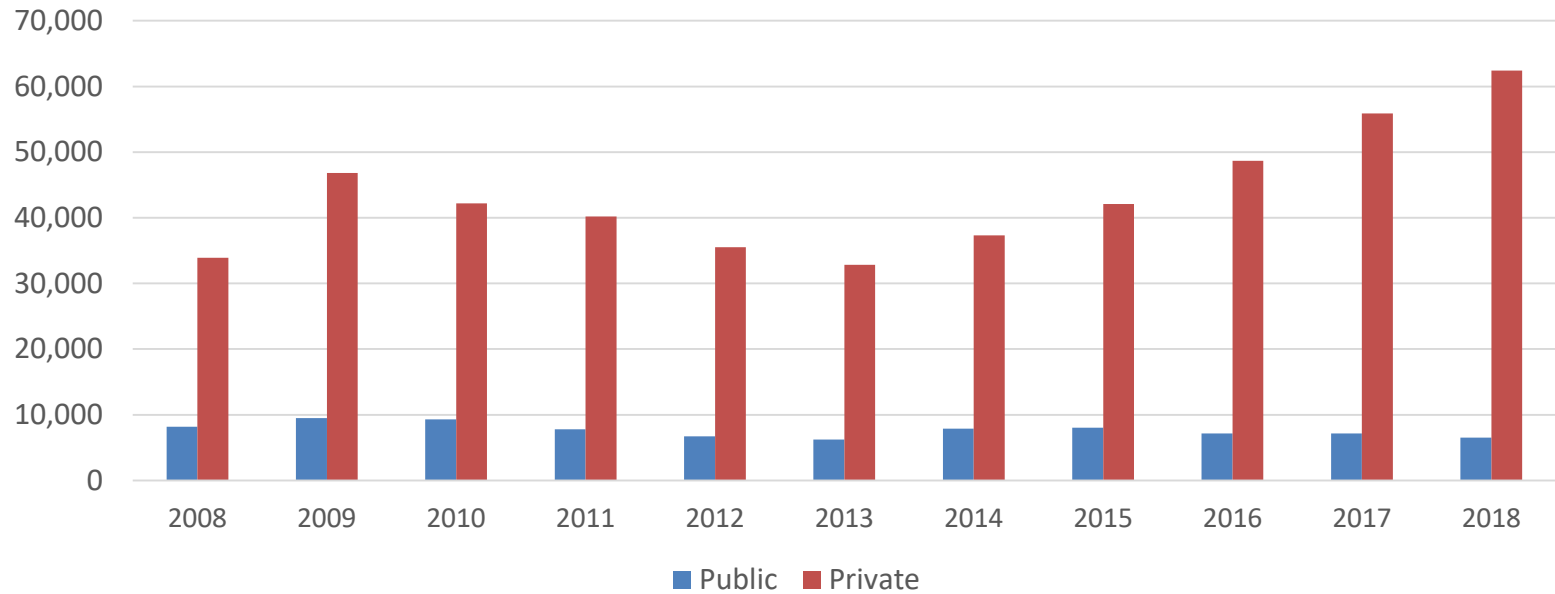

Diversification of VET sector (public) commencements (Year-to-date May)

Public VET commencements in Victoria by nationality

Trend in VET commencements (public vs private) (Year-to-date May)

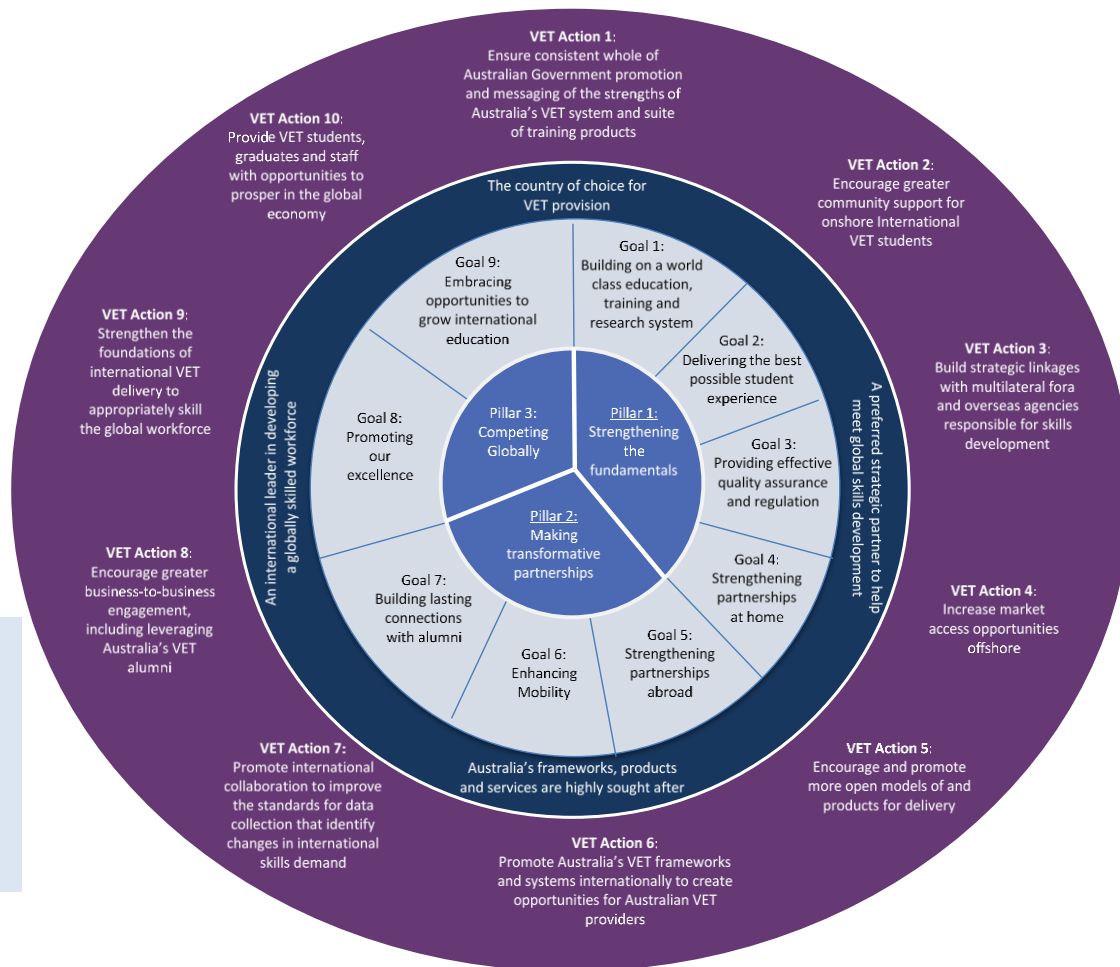

What next?

- International VET Strategy
 - Positioning Australia as a leader and partner of choice
 - Action framework

International VET Action Framework

Thank you

